

Lord Belial, Black Winter Blood Bath

(lyrics by Sin, music by Vassago and Dark)

Once again... these fields I walked for eternity bloodred snow covered my enemies eyes of ice staring blind on me.

Once again... the voice calls for me to come for my reward - another kingdom to rule.

Once again... Ill create a new world and enslave the souls of my enemies as I've done since the birth of time.

... Black Winter Blood-bath !!!

Once again... thousand years has gone the web of time closes in I change into a crystallised chrysalis - my anger chained until he speaks my name again.

Black Winter Blood-bath!!!

Once again... Armageddon comes closer - Total War! ... Black Winter Blood-bath!!!
