

Lord Finesse, Strictly For The Ladies

This is stricly for the ladies, no ifs ands or maybes
We can chill together but hold on the babies
Let's have fun with this, I stand thunderous
Any girl I get I work wonders with Most try to step to me and then get upset with me
Cause I read them up and down like mental telepathy
Now, I settle down but not necessarily
With a girl who wants me for a Cherokee
Or other things that I have in the background
When I cut 'em off they go (Oh it's like that now?)
Yeah whatever, get yourself together
Cause ain't nothing change with Finesse but the weather
Trying to go all out baby? You'd better sidestep
You're on some new stuff that I ain't even tried yet
You might think I'm insane or crazy
Yeah, I know, this is strictly for the ladies
