

Lordi, Forsaken Fashion Dolls

Even in a dream - You won't ever be safe from your past mistakes - the naked rage In your mind - they're just one step behind they'll drag you deeper in - to meet your sins

You're down there all alone
They'll never let you go, no no

Forsaken fashion dolls
will follow you forever
white eyes of sheer despite will dog you 'till you die
Forsaken fashion dolls
You're meant to be together
just cry your silent scream tonite

Lock you tight - bury you alive eat you up inside - feel your soul decline But outta sight does not mean it's outta mind They watch you suffer in you plight so goddamn satisfied

You're down there all alone
They'll never let you go, no no

Forsaken fashion dolls
Will follow you forever
white eyes of sheer despite will dog you 'till you die
Forsaken fashion dolls
just cry your silent scream tonite
