

Lords Of The New Church, Apocalypso

(Bator/James)

I got the feeling - hey. Whoops - hey. Now...world powers collided in the final stage. History. Black castle remnants of the industrial age. Secret war exploded into nuclear one.
Ahh....was a nuclear blast, we had a holocaust-a fun. Everything's turning red. We all just walking dead. I should'a stayed in bed. Where is the feast what we were promised? Only believe in animal lust. Everybody wanting I'm not in the mood for giving.
This life stinks so what's your reason to live? My gang's gonna git'cha tonight. On the other side of night. Ya gotta trust the night. Now. Yeah-hey. Brian saves. No time to laugh
'cause it's all funney, honey. Never thought it would ever happen to me. Video plays it back simulcast. Watchin' the world plunge back to the past. Celebration's just begun. Gonna do it while it's still fun. Nothin' left, there ain't no one.
Anytime at all.....no time at all - hey.
Apocalypso.....we want apocalypso.
Ka-boom-boom. watch me move.
