

Lorene Drive, Let It Go

She's a killer, know what I'm talking about
But I might have been mistaken, overreacting
Come on let's face it, you're so dramatic
You might as well embrace it
She looks so good it hurts, what am I supposed to do
Oh girl for sure I would
You know I might as well
Let it go
A broken heart don't seem so bad
But she looks so good it hurts
Take a breath, not another word
But she looks so good it hurts
That girl's a killer I think it's safe to say
This girl's got me dying to survive her
I can't deny her, come let's face it, you're so dramatic
You might as well embrace it
