

Loretta Lynn, Close My Eyes

(Loretta Lynn)

I know he knows I'm bad so why don't he close my eyes
Cause as long as they stay open I can see where my heart lies
It's buried at his beat and when he steps on it it cries
Everybody knows I'm bad so why don't they close my eyes
My blue eyes are open wide and I can see her take my place
I know still I can feel the dirt he's throwin' in my face
He is every breath I breathe so how could I survive
Everybody knows I'm bad so why don't they close my eyes
[ steel ]
My blue eyes are open wide...
