Loretta Lynn, I Got Caught

(Loretta Lynn)

You're standin' there a sayin' I'm no good and I'm so ashamed I'd die if I could But you're no better than I am or have you given this one thought The only thing that's different I got caught Over night you left me all alone and the only arms close to me was my own And now you're blame on me but it's not all my fault The only thing that's different I got caught Yeah I got caught but honey you're a pro There's not a thing about cheatin' you don't know That same old line you sell is the same old line I bought The thing you've got away with I got caught [guitar - steel] Yeah I got caught... Yeah the thing you've got away with I got caught
