

Loretta Lynn, If I Never Love Again

All the heartaches that I've known would fill the sea
Oh, I'm lonesome and you'll be callin' me, yeah, callin' me
Oh, mem'ries, fill my little lonely room
And if I never love again, it'll be too soon.

Can't help turnin' by each love I've ever had
And your leavin' hurt the worst, it hurt so bad, it hurt me bad
For misery cast its shadow on the moon
And if I never love again, it'll be too soon.

I don't wanna see another road than blue
And if I never love again, it'll be too soon
No, I don't wanna ever see another road than blue
And if I never never love again, it'll be too soon...
