

Loretta Lynn, Satin Sheets

(John Volinkaty)

Satin sheets to lie on satin pillows to cry on but still I'm not happy don't you see
Big long Cadillacs pretty clothes upon my back but still I want you to set you free

I found another man who can give me more than you can
So you've given everything that money can buy
But your money can't hold me tight like he does on a long long night
No you didn't keep me satisfied
Satin sheets to lie on...
Oh but still I want you to set you free
