

Loretta Lynn, See That Mountain

(Connie Moore)

See that mountain I'm gonna have to climb
Well there's a river waitin' on the other side
And the road leading nowhere I'll take it for I must
He's somewhere tomorrow or I'll bust

You can go along with me and be my friend
Or you can stay and wish you'd gone alone
And you can follow me in postcard that I'll send
But by the time you enter I'll be gone
Life is a circle spinning round searching for what you haven't found
I leave today to look for my tomorrow
Tomorrow I'll come searching for today
[ ac.guitar ]
See that mountain I'm gonna have to climb...

I don't know that I'd be coming back this way
But if you stay and I'd come back someday
Then I'll teach you the lessons that I've learned
And I'll build back the bridges that I've burned
Life is a circle spinning round...
Yeah tomorrow I'll come searching for today
