

Lori Carson, Waking To The Dream Of You

they say nothing lasts forever but in my heart i still believe that 2 people can stay together maybe my thinking is a bit nieve now i'm living in this brand new world the one without you by my side and im getting all this good advice on making it an easy ride

they say dont call him up (no)
dont be alone (no)
dont be up waiting for him to come home well i'm not calling, i'm not waiting, i'm not crawling but im aching and crying waking to the dream of you

i wake up to the dream of loving you
no matter what i do
do you feel it too?

hey baby, do you think about me?
do you miss me like i'm missing you? are you getting the same advice from friends who want to help you through?

dont be alone (no)
well i'm not calling, i'm not waiting, i'm not crawling

no matter what i do
i wake up to the dream of loving you
do you feel it too?
well i'm not calling, i'm not waiting, i'm not crawling, i'm not breaking, i'm not bleeding, i'm not falling, but i'm aching and i'm crying and shaking waking to the dream of you

i wake up to the dream of loving you
no matter what i do
i wake up to the dream of loving you
waking to the dream of you i'm waking to the dream of you.....
