

Lorrie Morgan, Dear Me

Dear me
I'm writin' this letter to try and tell myself
It's time for me to feel better

Dear me
How could I turn away when he needed me
Now all that's left to say is "dear me";
Oh, what have I done
Oh, and dear me
He's my only one
If he could see me now
Sittin' here all alone
If he could read these words
Would he run back home
Dear me

Dear me
Do you really mind
You're the only friend
Who will take the time to hear me
Oh, and all the plans we've made
If he'll take me back
I'll do anything to make him stay
Oh, dear me
We'll start all over again
Oh, and dear me
I hope he'll stay 'til the end
If he could see me now
Sittin' here all alone
If he could read these words
Would he run back home
Dear me

Dear me
We'll start all over again
Oh, and dear me
I hope he'll stay 'til the end
If he could see me now
Sittin' here all alone
If he could read these words
Would he run back home
Dear me

Dear me
You know I need him near me
You know I love him, dear me
