

Los Campesinos, It's Never That Easy Though, Is It?

I'm considering religion
And military conscription
It's the moment I realise I am stuck
Asserting ourselves at traffic lights
In foreign countries in the very dead of night
Is the moment I realise I am stuck
Uh oh, uh oh, uh oh, uh oh
This is the end of the asterisk
Babe, that one's got nothing on me
This is the end of the footnote
Extorting money from your parents
Your disgusting parents
Honestly you're an absolute waste of time
Craving attention with your self-deprecation
I'll tell you one thing, it's spot on
And I'm better
Uh oh, uh oh, uh oh, uh oh
This is the end of the asterisk
Babe, that one's got nothing on me
This is the end of the footnote
Extorting money from your parents
Your disgusting parents
Honestly you are an absolute tragedy
My luck, heroically, in all of the books you read
I read your novella, oh how I laughed
Killed off the lot of them
