

Los Lobos, Done Gone Blue

(David Hidalgo/Louie Perez)

Oo yeah sweet mystery
Strung together along a wire
But then it breaks - why I don't know
What is there to do
When this thing's done gone blue

Oo yeah sweet majesty
Diamond studded in the mire
Oh how it shines - 'till the end of time
How is it for you
When this thing's done gone blue

Oo yeah sweet agony
When the last coal's in the fire
How long it burns - well I don't know
Whatcha gonna do
When this thing's done gone blue
This thing's done gone blue
This thing's done gone blue
