

Los Lonely Boys, Someday You'll Realize

Written by: Henry Garza, JoJo Garza, Ringo Garza

How are you doing?
Well I hope you're doin' fine
Last time I saw you, girl
You were wavin' me goodbye

Someday you'll realize
That true love's hard to find
You're gonna need me in your life

Why should I take you back
When you said we were through?
Said if I'd take you back
You would promise to be true

Someday you'll realize
That true love's hard to find
You're gonna need me in your life

Como as estado (How are you doing)
Ojala te encuentres bien (Hope you're doing fine)
Y cuando te vi (And when I saw you last)
Me estabas diciendo adios (You were saying goodbye)
Un dia tu vas a saber (One day you'll realize)
Que tu evas a ser mi mujer (You were gonna be my girl)
Porque me dehaste (Why did you leave me with)
Hierido el corazon (A broken heart)

Someday you'll realize
That true love's hard to find
