

Loser, Disposable Sunshine

Goodbye, lucid blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight washes over
Everything i've known
Strange days comin' over me, now
I thought that I knew everything
Strange thoughts penetrate my halo
I'm listening to what they're saying
I'm starin in the face of a broken dream,
I feel a chill rushing down my spine
I'm closer to the edge than i've ever been
And I wanna see the other side

(Chorus)

Goodbye, lucid blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight washes over
Everything i've known
Strange days comin over me, now
I thought that i'd seen everything
Strange thoughts penetrate my halo
I've sacrificed my purity
Starin' in the face of a broken dream
I feel a chill rushing down my spine
I'm closer to the edge than i've ever been
And I wanna see the other side

(chorus)

Goodbye, lucid blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight washes over
Everything i've known
Disposable Sunshine
Goodbye, lucid blue sky
Innocence is gone
Disposable Sunshine
Midnight washes over
Everything i've known
Disposable Sunshine
Disposable Sunshine
Goodbye, lucid blue sky
Innocence is gone
Midnight washes over
Everything i've known
Disposable Sunshine
Goodbye, lucid blue sky
Innocence is gone
Disposable Sunshine
Midnight washes over
Everything i've known
Disposable Sunshine
