Lost Frequencies, The Feeling

We're dancing baby under open skies My heart is crazy it tells me you're the one I should run And the feeling goes on

Yeah we fly into the night and fight the break of dawn We're sippin on the highs tomorrow we are gone I should run And the feeling goes on

And the feeling goes on and on and on And the feeling goes on and on and on Come away tonight Only you and I And the feeling goes on and on

I hold on, should let go Lost all my control Drunk kissing, drunk feelings I hate that we're leaving The way my hearts beating I'm locked in this freedom

Yeah we fly into the night and fight the break of dawn We're sippin on the highs tomorrow we are gone I should run And the feeling goes on

And the feeling goes on and on and on And the feeling goes on and on and on Come away tonight Only you and I And the feeling goes on and on
