

Lost Witness feat. Tiff Lacey, Coming Down

When I'm dreaming
I am running to your arms
I feel safe inside
This dream of mine
I don't know where I'm heading in this life
The thing I'm certain of
Is you by my side
Open your eyes
There's no need to be alone
See this open door
Leading straight through my heart
I don't know where I am heading in this life
One thing I'm certain of
We become alive
I'm dancing with the stars
and I'm not coming down I'm not coming down
oh no
I am riding on a wave heading straight for your heart
I'm not coming down
I'm not coming down
I'm dancing with the stars
and I'm not coming down
I'm not coming down
oh no
I am riding on wave
headed straight for your heart
I'm not coming down
I'm not coming...coming
I am riding on wave
headed straight for your heart
I'm not coming down
I'm not coming down
