

LostAlone, Make me Rhyme

Don't lace your spell with hidden themes
I'm transfixed and under already
I pale at being cut loose
Loyalty realised loyalty in which to confide
Complete me make me rhyme
Loyalty in disguise
Undo the progress make true this utopian harmony
Devoid the hopeless I'm running life on empty
I don't deserve you I champion pain and I endlessly invest i thought we would end up
Obliterate the choice lies on the breath of a whisper
In honor consequence runs free
Punish sentimentality
