

Lou Bega, Icecream

I am the ice-cream man known as mellow now would you like to say hello to my fellow me and my amigos sittin' all on a bench somewhere down in Puerto Rico two cocoa-honeys step by - they lookin' manefico so I step to 'em yeah how you doin' I took a close second 'cause I knew that I knew 'em bingo let me drop all my lingo I make her understand that I am still single so honey don't you worry no way
I got a truck full of plastics here to stay

Chorus:

Whoop whoop just slide a little whoop whoop just ride a little whoop whoop baby baby get down little in the middle surrounded by a big round Chocolate banana vanilla flavor you can try any damn thing I do you that favor but later on you got to be here by my side waitin' for a saddle to ride we gonna do a thing that's mega I am havin' way more sex than kiddies playin' sega and like Noriega I am dictatin' the game and I don't stop until you scream out my name so honey don't you worry no way
I got a truck full of plastics here to stay

Chorus
