

Lou, Let's Get Happy ( Eurovision 2003 )

dub du dubn da dap da
dub du dubn da dap da
dub du dubn da dap da hahhh - ooh last night in the discothek all my friends seemed to look and wait just lookin' for trouble cos everything's drivin' 'em mad (chor: yeah drivin' em mad) no fun - not a smilin' face and down at heart in so many ways hey baby what's on and why's everyone so sad let's get happy and let's be friends for tomorrow never never ends and our world will be all new let's get happy and let's be gail all our troubles they will fade away and the promise i will send you hits you on a brandnew day dub du dubn da dap da - yeah (choir: on that day everything will be okay) see that girl with the high heel shoes wanna know why she's got the blues don't ya stop rockin' and get the ball rollin' tonight (choir: yeah get the ball a rolling tonight) everyone's kinda cool and stressed gotta move - or you'll miss the best whatever you do now you just gotta do it right let's get happy and let's be friends
choir: dub du dubn da dap da
dub du dubn da dap da
dub du dubn da dap da - that's right on a brandnew day we will be on our way we will have lots of fun together let's get happy and let's be friends
choir: let's stop feeling sad and down let's just take off from the ground wo oh oh o....
let's get happy
