

Lou Lou Safran, Cinnamon (On The Rocks)

I feel so red and then I'm blue
Green has me missing you
And all the yellow that we had

Navy tears dye my cheeks
Lips are numb and crimson
Purple thoughts fill my head
Wanna hide inside my soft white bed
Grey is all I see outside
Can't hide the jade behind my eyes
When I saw you walking by with your pretty little pink girl

I feel so red and then I'm blue
Green has me missing you
And all the yellow that we had
I feel so red and then I'm blue
Green has me missing you
And all the yellow that we had

My heart feels maroon
Or maybe it's Cinnamon
Either way it was better then
Better then

I knew you wouldn't stay away
Your big brown eyes come back to play
Gold fingers lure me in
As I turn to stone again

I feel so red and then I'm blue
Green has me missing you
And all the yellow that we had
I feel so red and then I'm blue
Green has me missing you
And all the yellow that we had

My heart feels maroon
Or maybe it's Cinnamon
Either way it was better then
Better then

I feel so red and then I'm blue
Green has me missing you
And all the yellow that we had

My heart feels maroon
Or maybe it's Cinnamon
Either way it was better then
Better then
