

Lou Reed, I Believe In Love

I believe in good times now, and I believe in shows
And I believe in the iron cross
And as everybody know;

I believe in good times music, yeah, good time rock'n'roll
I believe in music, music, music,
It's satisfy your soul

Ah, I believe love (Good time music)
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, now, I believe in love (Good time music)

And I believe in party time, and I believe in soul
And I believe in temptation,
And knock, knock, knocking at your door

I believe in good times, yeah, good time rock'n'roll
Yeah, I believe in music, music, music
It's satisfy your soul

But you know that I believe love (Good time music)
Said yeah, yeah, I believe love

I believe, I believe, I believe in love
Yeah, I believe in love
Good time music - good time rock'n'roll
