

Lou Reed, I Want To Boogie With You

Hey, pretty baby
don't you think you might give me a chance Get it on with me go down-town for some loving romance
And I know I ain't nothing
I ain't worth but a thin dime
But if you put your heart in my hands
I'm sure that I could change your mind

I wanna boogie with you Yeah, I wanna boogie with you

There's something, baby, on which your parents both agree
And that is that they both have a deep distrust for me And your best friend Frankie well, I know, your best friend Frankie, he wants to see me sink And I don't much blame him for that he gets so useless after so few drinks, you know, baby

I wanna boogie with you
I wanna boogie with you

Well, I know your little baby sister she thinks that I'm a flop
Well, I guess that you know that it's true
I spent more time at the bottom than the top Tell your little sister
I know she wants to give me a whirl
But I don't have the time, baby to wait till she's grown up, and she's a woman, not a girl

Don't you know, I wanna boogie with you Hey, I wanna boogie with you
I wanna boogie with you
I wanna boogie with you, yeah

Boogie with you
Down by the corner
We'll be able to, yeah
