

Louise, Goodbye To Love

Goodbye to love
Goodbye to love

You may never understand why
I wanna be alone
You see I've had my share of heartaches
And my faith has gone
Yes it's clear (yes it's clear)
That I know the score
And I surely ain't gonna fall in love no more

You see Cupid shot his arrow
Common sense told me to duck
Goodbye to love
'Cos I had enough
If you're asking if I want it
Well no thank you very much

I don't need your love
'Cause it sure ain't worth the pain
No time for your love
If it's turning me insane
Always say goodbye to love

There are reasons for my feelings
That I can't explain
I don't want to be a victim
Waiting here in vain
You may find it hard to see
That this love ain't meant for me

Goodbye to love
Goodbye to love

You see my knight in shining armour
Is somewhere to be found
But I don't want nobody
Until he comes around

I don't need your love
'Cause it sure ain't worth the pain
No time for your love
If it's turning me insane
Always say goodbye to love

Goodbye, goodbye

You see my knight in shining armour
Is somewhere to be found
But I don't want nobody
Until he comes around

I don't need your love
'Cause it sure ain't worth the pain
No time for your love
If it's turning me insane
'Cause it sure ain't worth the pain
No time for your love
If it's turning me insane

Goodbye to love
Goodbye to love
