

Love Like Blood, Salvation

When I get up in the morning I always feel something inside of me It seems my stomach's burning
Is there salvation or wages of sin In isolation they are dancing with grace
This is the time when I should know life is not so long And I am sick of seeing the ugly face of yester
Is there salvation or wages of sin In isolation they are dancing with grace