

Love Like Blood, The Tribute To Manila

the way i'm walking so dark so still save me from the grave
hold out for cover heaven could be so fine if the moon was rising high but see the oceans mirrors and see the dark sky years of pain and hurt everything I want
tears of liberation
years gone in a moment I see your lifeless face I see your eyes in tears forever you've been hurt you couldn't leave this place corroded all the love every pleasure is rejected say what a feeling every gladness such hatred no more mission on live no joy of live for you
so you feel weak now deep in body and ghost blood an roses
I felt felt so sad everything I wanted
only tears
