

Lovebugs, The Highest Heights

I climb a tree
so mighty high
I see the world
just from beneath the sky
the dreams I dream
they take me high
Its always worth a try
the time is now
so stop the tease
and may I have
your attention please
the time has come
the curtains call
will you catch me when I fall, from the highest heights of all?
I climb this tree
the highest heights
from beneath the stars
I see little lights
the deams I dream
demand their rights
will you catch me when I fall
from the highest heights?
How will I ever know?
Ive always got to know
Will you catch me?
Will you catch me when I fall
from the highest heights
Will you catch me?
