

Lovedrug, Candy

Five to three, walls of candy
Sign my name on the dotted line next to yours
You found the ways to move faster and stay healthy no contra
All these words are just a matter of time
Youre like a snake in the water with shiny skin, a clear conscious
Venoms fade in just a matter of time
In just a matter of time
A matter of time
And too cold for kisses cause Ive fallen form heaven
Your halo is just a punch in my face
Youre all the rage, youre all the fun but ever
If you cross me Ill get you
Sweet revenge is just a matter of time
Its just a matter of time
A matter of time
And so youre striking but Youre savage when you cut into my beautiful infection
But I cant help like it when we touch
Oh havent we reaped enough to fill this room with sweet love
