

LoveHateHero, Fall

Jealousy, I do believe you're haunting me, you're haunting me.

I've said before; I don't mislead.

One girl's enough for a guy like me, like me.

So fall asleep in my arms, and fall away from temptation, and fall.

I'll always be here if you fall. I'll be here to catch you.

Why don't I care?

I don't resist.

Don't have the urge,

though they persist.

There is no cure,

There's no disease.

One girl's enough for a guy like me, like me.

So fall asleep in my arms, and fall away from temptation, and fall.

I'll always be here if you fall. I'll be here to catch you.

I'll be here to catch you.

I'll be here to catch you.

I'll be here to catch you.

I'll be here to catch you.

So fall asleep in my arms, and fall away from temptation, and fall.

I'll always be here if you fall. I'll be here to catch you.

I'll be here to catch you.
