

Lovher, Commitment

It's going on five years that we've been together
It's time to let me know, if it's going further
You know you promised me that you will always be, in my life
And when I bring it up, you just shut me out
Let me know

Why should I
Settle down
Raise your kids and you not marry me
Is that the way it has to be
Why should I
Wait around, while you decide if you're going to be with me
I'm looking for commitment, if not just let me be

We been dating on the regular for awhile now, a year far too long
Had the code to my cellular, get the Bentley, got whatever you want
Don't ask for much, I put in why can't you put out like me babe
Understand just commit to me, I'm dying inside this won't go on
I love you to death but, but boo, what's next for us
Vacations alone, no talks on the phone, don't call my phone
If this can't be, it is for us

Just let me be, leave me alone
It's over now

Why should I
Settle down
Raise your kids and you not marry me
Is that the way it has to be
Why should I
Wait around, while you decide if you're going to be with me
I'm looking for commitment, if not just let me be

I had high hopes that we'd be together
I gave you everything including a child
You said that one day we'd be a family, but its never gonna be
So why should I

You know I love you
You promised [4x]
You ain't ready babe to love me
