

Low, Walk Into The Sea

I could walk into the sea
And choke away the memory
Do I have to stay alive
Just to keep our dresses white?

You come to me in dreams
With all the other pretty things
You tell me about a Savior
And how the soul lives on forever

And time is just a hunger
It bleeds us out to nothing
And when it finally takes us over
I hope well float away together

Yeah, times the great destroyer
Leaves every child a bastard
When it finally takes us over
I hope well float away together

Ooooh (etc)
