

Luba, Act Of Mercy

no questions asked
no reason to give an explanation
it's trust against your will my accomplice
in a crime of compassion would you let me go
let me go
(Bridge)
It's the hardest thing
the hardest thing
I'm ever gonna have to do
It's the hardest thing
the hardest thing
you're ever gonna help me do
would you help me
would you help me
would you be my liberator
'cause I need you now need you more
need you more than ever before would you comply
to live or let die
you've got to send your heart to me
send your heart
send your heart
send your heart to me
it's an act of mercy
fatalistic
control my own fate
is mystic
won't you aid in my escape I want it easy
no complications
want to feel no pain
feel no pain
repeat bridge
repeat chorus
