

Lubjan, I Am Nowhere

Don't let the time deceive you
Tomorrow or today
In your dreaming head
You can't sleep in your bed
And I hear you screaming like a fool

What is thinking for
If you almost lost your mind
And your narrow days?
It's all I have to say today
This is all about your wounded pride
And my silent love

Love is all there is
Pain won't take you by surprise
Tell me your secret tonight
You will knock on my door,
There'll be an answer for you

Love is all there is
Pain won't take you by surprise
Tell me your secret tonight
You will knock on my door,
There'll be an answer for you

You were as fair
As a garden in flower but
There's more that meets the eye
A long shadow in the bleak, street light
Covers your shame

Love is all there is
Pain won't take you by surprise
Tell me your secret tonight
You will knock on my door,
There'll be an answer for you

Love is all there is
Pain won't take you by surprise
Tell me your secret tonight
You will knock on my door,
There'll be an answer for you

In the calm and peaceful night
While you're walking on tip toe
I can feel this emtyness,
Loneliness and innocence
Now I'd like to fly away
I don't know but I am nowhere

Love is all there is
Pain won't take you by surprise
Tell me your secret tonight
You will knock on my door,
There'll be an answer for you

Love is all there is
Pain won't take you by surprise
Tell me your secret tonight
You will knock on my door,
There'll be an answer for you

Don't let the time deceive you
Tomorrow or today
