

Lubjan, Instability

I wonder if I, may
Ever see you again
So I've sought you,
Daily, maybe without success
There will be nothing clear
Now that I've found you, found you

I hear your silent game but
I guess you won't win again
So I've reached you, lonely
Lonely with my despair
So is my life today, empty and boring
This is my monday's light
Till the sun goes down forever

My soul is in your eyes
Like a storm in the sky
I'm here and I am free
With my instability

My soul is in your eyes
Like a storm in the sky
I'm here and I am free
With my instability

I hear your silent step
I guess you won't come again
So I've met you, lonely
Lonely with my despair
So is my cry today, empty and boring,
This is my monday night
Till the moon goes down forever

My soul is in your eyes
Like a storm in the sky
I'm here and I am free
With my instability

It's a grief that wouldn't weep but
It has stopped my breath
Something talks and something whispers
To my mind again

My soul is in your eyes
Like a storm in the sky
I'm here and I am free
With my instability

I wonder if I may
Ever see you again
