

Lubjan, Sometimes

Sometimes a prayer
Can save you
From bad intentions
That you can't realize

Sometimes you give in
Feeding yourself
One thousand times again
And it's so cold inside

I remember you
For a moment, I get mad about you
I remember you
Every night, every day
And I've never denied I miss you

Sometimes I find you
In my dreams
You overwhelm me
I'd like you by my side

But now I am choosing to go
To every place
Where I know you couldn't follow me

I remember you
For a moment, I get mad about you
I remember you
Every night, every day
And I've never denied I miss you

And my flight is over and I try to smile
Thank you for the time I feel you so far away

And my flight is over
And my flight is over
And my flight is over
And I smile
