

Lucerin Blue, Superstar

I'm going to seek you like a freight train
Flying through the night
I'm about to take flight
Cuz I've found the light
I'm moving forward in what I know is real Gonna do this no matter how I feel
I'm going to find you like a lost cause
Searching for release
From the pain that has binded me like a disease
Realize, can't live less the love of God
Come on what else, you know theres nothing

So comfortable we sit and watch our lives go to waste
So comfortable we sit and watch our world fall away

I'M NOT FALLING AWAY!

I can't do this anymore
Sitting in my lawnchair drinking lemonade
In this superstar lifestyle that I've made
My comfort level seems to be always on the rising
It's North America, it's not surprising

I can't do this anymore, Watch my world fall away
I can't do this anymore, Watch my life go to waste

Time and Time again, you want to make Amends you want to battle the Ax
you want to battle the Max
