

Lucerin Blue, This Letter

By the time you receive this
By the time you get this letter
I'm sorry time has hurt you
I meant to write much sooner
The days are long now
The nights seem even longer
I'm thinking of when I kissed you
Thinking of being without her
Take my hand and the skyline
Look to me and darling please don't cry

We'll walk together
We'll find that place
We'll never be apart
We'll fly together
We'll find that place, the day you broke my heart

Please understand I miss you
I won't be gone much longer
I wish you were closer to me
We could enjoy this life together

Convince me, Console me tell me that I'll be Coming home soon, my love
When we're together that place
The day that you broke my heart
