

Lucero, I'll Just Fall

i think i'll just stay right down here on this floor
'cause if i get back up, i'll only fall down more it ain't the liquor; it ain't the beer that keeps me down it ain't the sad songs or the heartache it ain't even this town well i must've had a pretty good time to end up here made a pretty good run; caught up with me, my dear there's no need to make a fuss 'cause i'll be alright just let me lay here a while, 'till i can stand up right now i'm just a little bit tired, that's all and don't make me get up, 'cause i'll just fall now please stop talking so loud and just let me sleep i ain't in nobody's way; they can step over me and i think i'll stay right down here on this floor
'cause if i get back up, i'll only fall down more
and don't make me get up, 'cause i'll just fall
