

Lucero, Into Your Eyes

well i'm not supposed to see you looking i'm not supposed to stare straight into your eyes into your eyes
well i'm not supposed to kiss your lips
but you smile so sweet
i can't resist those eyes now you say you might have eyes for me and i can only wish that you were mine that you were mine well i'm not supposed to be here with you but how can i leave if you look at me with those eyes
into your eyes
