

Lucero, Is That You I Been Kissing?

We been kissing for hours before I felt your lips
Thought I was dreaming about her til I felt your fingertips
Well hello there, how did you end up here
Is that you I been kissing?
Is that you holding me near?
Now I didn't catch on quite as quick as I should
I'm not sure if it's real but it sure is good
If you really kiss me, kiss me again
And if I'm only dreaming, don't let it end
I'll hold on tightly so you don't slip away
I'm not sure if you're real, but I sure hope you stay
Is that you I been kissing?
Is that your hand in mine?
I didn't see it coming but I do like it fine
I just hope when I wake up that you're still by my side
Will your kisses fade with the morning light?
I hope when I wake up that you're still by my side
Then I'll kiss you some more in the broad daylight
