

Lucie Silvas, That's Why I Love You

Written by: Lucie Silvas and Mark Hall

ooh la la, la la da
...and that's why I love you.

I think it was a sunny Monday morning I recall,
I really can't imagine how I spent my time before.
The guys and buzz are all the same
They place you in love, and then forget your name.

There was something different when I laid my eyes on you,
A living contradiction, a little voice without a clue.
It came to me as some surprise that you could see the future in my eyes.

Oh, I don't know much about anything but one thing I know is

(chorus)
You, make me feel like everyday's a Saturday,
And you, always love me more than you did yesterday
Cause I demand the kind of man that understands
And that's why I love you.

I used to read of romance, but I never got a chance, (no I never)
Cos love is just a promise whispered softly as I dance (dance)
But I don't need no sympathy cos self-respect is what you gave to me

Oh, I don't know much about anything but one thing I know is

(chorus)
You, make me feel like everyday's a Saturday,
And you, always love me more than you did yesterday
Cause I demand the kind of man who understands
And that's why I love you.
Oh, I don't know much about anything but one thing baby I've learned (baby, I have learned)
I'm not gonna settle for anything, but, you.

(chorus)
You, make me feel like everyday's a Saturday,
And you, always love me more than you did yesterday
Cause I demand the kind of man who understands
Yeah that's why I love you.
And that's why I love you.
You, make me feel like everyday's a Saturday,
And you, always love me more than you did yesterday
Cause I demand the kind of man who understands
And that's why I love you.
You, make me feel like everyday's a Saturday,
And you, always love me more than you did yesterday
Cause I demand the kind of man who understands
And that's why I love you
And that's why I love you
And that's why I love you
And that's why
And that's why I love
You make me feel like everyday's a Saturday.
