

Lucinda Williams, Price To Pay

It weighs a lot, it costs a lot
And it's worth a whole lot more
But it's not something you could afford anyway
Cuz you weren't careful with my love
You lost the key to the door of my heart
Now there's a price you have to pay

You can shop around and look around
But you'll never find
Another one quite like this one anyplace
And believe me, it won't be easy
To repair it this time cuz it's my heart
And there's a price you have to pay

[Chorus:]
It's my heart and there's a price you have to pay
Enough is enough
You played too rough with my heart
Now there's a price you have to pay

Well, it's broken and there's nothin'
That I can do now
I can fix it but it won't ever be the same
I can pick up all the pieces
And start over somehow but it's my heart
And there's a price you have to pay

[Chorus]
Enough is enough
You played too rough with my heart
Now there's a price you have to pay
