

Luckdown, Dying Tonight

i'm bent down, i'm here on one knee, forgive me for this.
for this, that we don't know,
don't hate me anymore.

i can't fight you anymore,
have you forgot just what this started for?
and suicide seemed far away,
i'm dying.

you're left down,
you're minus two Ts-
i'll hate you for this.
now that, i'm here and i know what's been going on.

i can't fight you anymore,
have you forgot just what this started for?
and suicide seemed far away,
i'm dying.

i'm dying inside, and it's slipping out.
i'm dying tonight, and i'm taking you out.

and i can't fight you anymore,
have you forgot just what this started for?
my suicide seemed far away,
i'm dying.

and i will hate you evermore;
i'm nevermore.
and suicide seemed far away;
i'm dying.
