

Luckdown, Get Me Out

sky's falling down,
as i fight gravity.
but it's not enough to get through this.

breathing itself, is so simple to do.
breathing alone, without air is without you.
it can't be done, so get me out.
and i'll start again.

leaving me alone,
you're finding a hope in new beginnings.
but don't care for me.

breathing alone, without air is without you.

breathing alone, without air is without you.
