

Luckdown, Voices

what's that noise?

it's just me inside your head.

whispering poetry, this verse awakes the dead.

thoughts that plague your mind and scream throughout,

don't believe anything your heart tells you about...

just believe, just in me,

the voice inside your head.

ignore the feelings that are pulsing in your chest.

it's just me, i'm inside,

i'm you, and you are not.

you'll never be one with your thoughts.

reciting poetry, this verse awakes the dead.

the thoughts that plague your mind and scream throughout,

don't believe anything your heart tells you about...

just believe, just in me,

it's just me, i'm inside,

i'm you, and you are not.
