

Lucky 7, Princess Dreams

Wanna take you for a ride underneath the moonlit sky.
Like in true romance we can ditch this town we'll never say goodbye.
We're gonna leave this crowd behind us.
They're never gonna find us.
They'll never see the starlight in your eyes.
The road is on our side.
We're gonna leave the past behind, princess dreams are forever.
I'll run my fingers through your hair.
You're the fairest of the fair.
I'm gonna look into your eyes so I can tell you that I love you.
We're gonna cast our cares to Vegas.
Maybe that will save us.
We're acting like tonight will never end.
I'll never let you down.
I'll always be around to catch you when you're falling.
And promise me I'm found.
You 'll always be around to catch me when I'm falling down.
We're gonna leave this world behind us.
We're gonna leave this world behind us.
I wanna take you for a ride.
We'll ditch this town and never say goodbye.
We're gonna leave this crowd behind.
They'll never see the starlight in your eyes, in your eyes.
