

Lucky Boys Confusion, Atari

You started off, break out the ammunition
If not enough, you point at my friends
Grabs the keys and
Tells me that she's out of patience
And tells her friends what a loser I've been
The walls go up, the telephone is waiting
To be shut off, it if happens again
I've been building up or just been overrating
Time and my sanity spent

Chorus

I don't want to stand here and say I'm sorry
I just want to drink beer and play atari
You can tell your mom how I make my money
I don't care

Well, later on my clothes are in the front yard
It takes a man to honor the mess
I gotta laugh thanks for the new selection
I got your dad's John Tesh

Chorus

Bridge

The world outside is cold, man,
It's gone forever
I get high in hindsight it's getting better
Save your breath, your threats won't hurt
And I don't care

Beautiful

Twisted
And beautiful
I'm wasted and miserable
Take it away

Chorus, Bridge (2x)

I don't care (6x)
