

Lucky Boys Confusion, Blame

If it's happening, then it's happened to more than you
Hesitate to call you back, thirty-first and rent's due
If it's happening, then it's happened to more than you
What is it, what's haunting you?

Chorus:

Now you're blaming all your friends again (friends again)
Dead broke and dodging the heat
Now you're blaming all your friends again (friends again)
Here's my last smoke, just hit me back
Just hit me back

If it's happening, then it's happened to more than you
You got your second DUI, again the lawyer's got to save you
If it's happening, then it's happened to more than you
Your choices are choosing you

Chorus

Don't feed me your excuse again
Cause I just spit it up
Don't feed me your excuse again
Again

If it's happening, then it's happened to more than you
I know you saw your mother die, can't imagine how that hurt you
If it's happening, then it's happened to more than you
Stepmother stepped over you

Now you're blaming all your friends again (friends again)
Dead broke and dodging the heat
Now you're blaming all your friends again (friends again)
Here's my last breath, just hit me back
Just hit me back, hey, just hit me back
