

Lucky Boys Confusion, Something To Believe

Popped up this morning just a little off center
God fearing world, I'm so afraid to enter
Haven't decided
Haven't decided what to do
Looking back, looking over my shoulder
Still agnostic, every day it gets older
Haven't decided
Haven't decided what to do
Holy books, so many flaws no answers
Believe in him or fear him like a cancer
Haven't decided
Haven't decided what to do
Bible banging, slanging Jesus at my door
'hey son, this is something you can't afford'
Haven't decided
Haven't decided...

Chorus:

Oh give me something to believe
So many down on their knees
It baffles me, baffles me
Oh give me something to believe
So many down on their knees..
It baffles me, baffles me

Popped up this morning like nipples in the winter
God fearing world, I'm so afraid to enter
Haven't decided
Haven't decided what to do
After life, after death uncertain
Choose your side before they're droppin' the curtain
Haven't decided
Haven't decided what to do
Where do I go for my inspiration?
Go with the flow, with the standing ovation?
Haven't decided
Haven't decided what to do
Standing idle, waiting for doomsday
Damned if you do, damned if you don't say
Haven't decided
Haven't decided what to do

I learned my lesson from history
I'm not claiming to be
Jesus Christ and company
I am needy
I'm a thief
I'm not claiming to have
Role model qualities
But here's a lesson
Simplicity
From a poor boy who don't
Who don't believe in destiny
Be good to another
Set yourself free
All the pieces they...
Fall together

Chorus to Fade
